PROSPECTUS

I feel very happy after establishing a school in an interior place of Paliganj in district Patna. Those days there were so many schools that were running but they were not any good school. Not any student was taking part in pan level of competition. so I have decided to establish a such a type of school, whose product is chosen in all types of competition. such as engineering, medical, 1AS etc.

It is the duty of schools, teachers as well as parents to motivate and encourage the child. Though he/she does not perform well, instead of discourage the child, They should spend time with them, therefor it is the duty to encourage him/her to work hard. some times it is seen that some people (teacher, parents) compare the failure of child to the success of the other child. It is absolutely wrong. They compare the boys according to their ability, situation and other condition to motivate them observing their progress day by day. It is the duty of parents and teachers to identify the ways of learning of their children and tech them in the way that they like more and learn easily.

It is the important for parents to observe what kind of company their child is surrounded with- company has a great impact on a child`s mind. It is to be noted that a child picks up wrong things more quickly than good things. As a regular practice, parents should also give a little time to ask the child about his/her studies, his performance in the class, H.W. status, C.W. status, etc. They should also try to visit the school and meet the principal, class teacher, subject teacher, and gather the feed back about the ward and also gather the report of his child`s behavior whether it is good or bad.

Now a days every body has one or two children ,so it is duty to of parents care them very properly of their wards ground in wrong direction in lack of parent`s care. It is not the matter to blame the child later if he/she goes worst because of lack of their care. so keep a close relation with your child regularly. Discuss with them if they are facing problem while studying.
